The following explains how Motor Insurers' Bureau ("MIB") (its suppliers and or sub-contractors) uses non-intrusive cookies on this website. Continued use of this website implies your (or a user of your computer's) ("you") acceptance of this Cookie Policy.

A 'cookie' is information that a website transfers to and stores on the hard drive of your device so that it can remember something about you at a later time. A 'cookie' recognises you when you return to this website. MIB may collect information by 'cookies' about your device including the IP address, operating system and browser type. This information is used to improve the use of this website, to track visitor use of this website and to compile statistical reports on website activity. For further information visit www.aboutcookies.org or www.allaboutcookies.org.

This website uses the following cookies:

- Authentication cookies. These cookies are used to identify unique visitors to the website. If you log in to the website, these are the cookies that allow us to remember who you are so that we can provide you with access to pages personal to you, for example your account pages. These cookies help keep your visit to the site secure.

- Analytical/performance cookies. Behind the scenes we use Google Analytics to give us an insight into how our users interact with the website. These cookies also allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily. The information collected is anonymous and statistical and will be used by MIB to compile reports and to help us improve this website.

- Session Cookies. These are cookies that are designed to ensure that your visit to the website is as smooth as possible. Their main uses are:
  • Allowing us to identify your device as you use the website, so that you are not treated as a new visitor each time you go to another part of the website;
  • Ensure that the servers that we use to power the website each serve an equal number of users, to help make everyone's browsing as swift and responsible as possible;
  • Noting your browser's capabilities.

If cookies are completely disabled on the user's browser, then you may not be able to log into the site.

Third party cookies

Please note that third parties may also use cookies, over which we have no control. For example, Experian Limited set cookies using this website in order to deliver services including the 'SSO functionality'. (If you would like more information about the cookies used by Experian Limited, together with information on how to opt-out, please see Experian Limited's individual privacy policies located at http://www.experian.com/privacy/index.html

How to refuse to accept cookies

At any time you may refuse to accept cookies on this website by activating the setting on your browser which allows you to refuse the setting of cookies. Information on deleting or controlling cookies is available at www.AboutCookies.org. By deleting cookies in this manner, you will also disable MIB's cookies that control the High Visibility settings of your browser. If you refuse to accept 'cookies', you may be unable to access all or certain parts of this website.

To opt out of being tracked by Google Analytics across all websites visit http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout
